SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR 1

CLEVELAND, June 30 .- The Pittsburg team won another game here to-day by completely outplaying the nome team-

The local players were presented with all their runs as they did not earn any one of their five tallies. The visitors certainly showed their superiority with the stick and their victory was entire ly due to good hard thumping of the In spite of the small number of hits that Cleveland made they were all instrumental in bringing in runs. Charley Farrell's lone fumble cost the Pittsburgs four runs for Cleveland got that many in the first after he tailed to handle Tebeau's ground hit accurately. Davies kept the hits well scattered throughout the game until the eighth.

Where Mark Was a Little Wild.

In the first inning Baldwin gave Childs and Burkett bases on balls in succession. Davis attempted to bunt, but hit the ball too hard and Baldwin got it in time to throw Childs out at third. McKean flied out to Smith. Tebeau hit to Farrell, who had an easy chance to retire the side, but fumbled the ball and the bases were full. Virtue picked out a straight ball, cracked it hard to center, and Burkett and Davis scored. Then McAleer followed with a safe drive past Farrell, and Tebeau and Virtue had no trouble to get home.

Miller began with a single for Pittsburg

Miller began with a single for Pittsburg and got to second on a passed ball. Bierbauer's bunt put him on third, and he scored on Shugart's slow hit to Childs. In the fifth Childs rapped a slow grounder toward second base. Ordinarily it would have been an easy pickup for the pitcher, but as Baldwin stooped down to get it the ball bounded, striking him on the arm, and Childs was seek. Burkstt got a base on Childs was safe. Burkett got a base on balls, Davies sacrificed, and Childs scored with ease on McKean's slow hit toward Shugart Got a Hit and a Run.

In the sixth Shugart led off with a single along the third base line, and Beckley sent him to second on a line hit to left; Donovan sacrificed, Smith drove a hot grounder at Davies, who partially stopped it; Childs Davies, who partially stopped at, contaged the ball and threw Smith out, but Shugart scored. Beckley had gone to third and came home on a wild pitch. The eighth was a lucky inning for Pittsburg. Bierthaus because the according three-base hit bauer began with a corking three-base hit to right field, and Shugart flied out to

Davies. Beckley hit safely to right field and Bierbauer scored; Donovan's hit to Davies forced Beckley out at second. Then Smith dropped a lucky pop fly in left field, Donovan going to third. Farrell bunted toward third and Davies threw the ball to O'Concer who the growd said touched O'Connor, who, the crowd said, touched Donovan out, but the umpire called it safe. Corkhill hit to Virtue, who couldn't handle the ball, and the bases were filled. Baldwin drove a grounder at Tebeau, who threw to second to head off Corkhill, but Corkhill was safe. And Smith's run counted. Miller was thrown out by McKean. The score: CLEVELAND R B P A E PITTEBURG R B P A E

The Phillies and the Senators Play Two Games at Exposition Park.

There were 1,200 Pittsburgers at Exposition Park yesterday afternoon to see the Philadelphia and Washington teams play off their two postponed games. As previously stated this arrangement was made to enable the Phillies to reach Louisville in time to Yesterday's two games were very well played. Both teams put up a first-class article of ball playing and each side got a victory. Big Sam Thompson's errors gave the first game to the Senators.

In the first game singles by Hoy and Larkin, a stolen base and a muffed fly by Thompson scored two runs in the sixth inning. Thompson's error was made with two men out. Robinson's single, two sacrifice seventh. Carsey was hit on the arm by a pitched ball in the sixth inning and retired.

pitched ball in the sixth inning and retired, Esper taking his piace. Five hits were made off Carsey.

In the second game Radford got his base on balls in the first inning, Dowd made a safe bunt and Hoy's sacrifice sent the runners to second and third. Larkin got his base on balls, filling the bases, and McGuire also got his base on balls, forcing in a run. Allen's fumble of Duffee's grounder sent in another run. another run.

For the Phillies a triple each by Hamilton and Connor and a sacrifice by Hallman carned two runs in the third inning. In the sixth Allen's base on balls, Cross' double and a fumble by Robinson netted the third run.

In the ninth inning Milligan batted instead of Knell, but the change did not do any good. The scores:

Circus catcles were common in the closing stage of the marvelous contest. Browning, O'Neili and Holliday each made plays that awakened enthusiasm, and Latham stopped a ball from Cooney's bat that he did not know he had. The last great play occurred in the cighteenth. Dungan led off with a double to left, and Canavn's sacrifice landed him at third. Cooney sent a little fly to center, which the Gladiator nipped by a terrific spurt. Gumbert's strike-out sent uncle to field. The last dozen Reds to face Gumbert went out in order. The score:

ROGER CONNER, of the Phillies, is doing some very effective waiting this season. In every one of the 44 games he played this season he has had at least one base on balls. THOSE young men at Cleveland persist in terming almost every hit made by a Pittsburg player "a incky" hit. Surely Pittsburgers have a little skill about them, at least.

IN fielding, the Brooklyns outplayed the Bostons in the series of seven games. The Brooklyns made only 14 errors to their opponents 23, and have a fielding average of ,955 to ,915. GREAT Scott! John Burdock has asked New York to make a Giant out of him and Fred Dunian says he can play better ball than ten-tenths of Patricio Powers' gang.—Times-Star. THE Climax team, of Aliegheny, will play the Cumberland team on July 4. The Climax want to play any team on their way home from Cumber-land. Address, H. Bright, 816 Liberty street.

Sol dropped behind Mount Harrison, and then both teams were called off the field. Neither was vanquished, and after 20 innings of struggling, the game was drawn. Sixteen straight blanks had been drawn by Cincinnati, and Uncle Anson was just one behind. The old man, who had surrendered to Comiskey's hirelings six times this year, opened up desperately, and the first few exchanges gave promise of those dear old '69 games.

Uncle began on Mullane himself in that lively second with a clean drive. Dungan followed with a triple, which he tried to stretch into a homer. Had he halted at third this story of record-breaking would not have been told, for Cooney, Gumbert and Luby all turned up with solid shot and three earned runs looked as if the bell of the tragedy of "Anse and revenge" had at last rung. Fate snickered at the old man, and he made the blunder which enabled Cincinnati to at once wipe out that lead. A muff of Canavan's assist saved Browning, and subsequent cannonading, in which Smith, Mullane, McPhee and Latham took part, put Cincinnati one run to the good. Smith's error netted two of Chicago's three in the third, and it was Dahlen's fumble, with Smith's succeeding drive that let Cincinnati the he score. Mullane's great slide home after he had reached third on balls, McPhee's bit and a steal yielded Cincinnatis hast run, made sure by Schriver's drop of the ball. Schriver's gift and Dunran's double netted Chicago's final run and then came the great swap of blanks.

One hit at half a dozen stages would have wound up affairs, but it was not forthcoming. Anson waited at third in the eighth. That wasn't as heartrending as O'Neill's experience in the ninth. He led off with a double. Holliday went forward with an idea to sacrifice, but he hit to Gumbert and O'Neill died at third. Comiskey's safe hit that followed was worthless. Again, in the fourteenth, Browning hit safe. Comiskey's fly was muffed by Luby, but Wilmot made a grand catche of Smith's line fly and Vaughn's tap was weak.

Circus catches were common in In the seven games played between the Brook-lyns and the Bostons the former won three, made 35 runs, 51 hits, with a total of 77 bases and 16 sac-rifices. The Bostons made 4 runs more, 2 hits less, with a total of 71 bases and 14 sacrifices.

made the four miles in 21 minutes and 2 seconds. The tide and wind were with them. The record is 20:10 made by Tale in 1888. The 21:72 is better than any time since.

Down at Harvard one is struck by the feeling of confidence. Coach Harry Keys is the bluest of the lot. He said that he never wanted to win a boat race any more in his life than he does this one, but he has not figured out yet exactly how he is going to do it. "I was much encouraged last Saturday." he said, "by the way the men suddenly picked up on Monday. You wouldn't have known it was the same crew, but since then there hasn't been much improvement." Dr. Conant, their medical adviser, is in ceatasy over the men. "It is the biggest crew, and the most ppwerful one," he said, "that Harvard ever put on the water."

Sullivan Said to Be Reducing Himself at an Enormous Rate.

New York, June 30. - Bright and early yesterday morning John L. Sullivan awoke to commence in earnest the task of reducing his adipose tissue. On the previous evening the Bostonian was taken in charge by Phil Casey, the champion handball player, of Brooklyn, who has been assigned the somewhat uncomfortable job of training John L. He was taken to Casey's handball court on Sackett street, Brooklyn, to do a little pre-liminary work before he retired. The champion is somewhat of an expert at the game, and took kindly to his work. After several touts Sullivan was weighed, and to the astonishment of both himself and his trainer it was noticed that Sully had just lost seven pounds. Sullivan was then rubbed down and put to bed.

Early yesterday morning, after a light breakfast, he was again induced to play several games of handball, and in the afternoon he took a spin as far as Fort Hamilton and back, running and walking in turn under the watchful eye of Trainer Casey. He also took light exercise with dumbbells and took light exercise with dumbbells and punching the inflated bag until he perspired freely. At nightfall he was once more weighed, and tipped the beam at 229 pounds, a reduction of just 14 pounds in two days. The "big iellow" will continue to do light work at Casey's court until next Friday or Saturday, when he will go to Bay Head, L. L, where Johnson, his backer, yesterday hired a cottaxe.

McClelland Heard From Again, E. C. McClelland, now at Wheeling, again writes this paper stating that he is willing writes this paper stating that he is willing to join in a sweepstake race of three miles with Peter Priddy and M. J. Kennedy, each man to put up $200, the winner to take all the stake money and 73 per cent of the receipts and the second man 25 per cent. Or he will run either Priddy or Kennedy a three-mile race at Whoeling for $250 a side and the receipts four weeks after signing articles.

Zimmerman Lowers the Record. LONDON, June 30 .- Arthur A. Zimmerman LONDON, June 30.—Arthur A. Zimmerman, the American champion bicyclist, with the English wheelmen, Bradbury and Mercy, beat the half-mile cycling record today. Zimmerman was in great form and made the distance in the unequaled time of one minute and five seconds. The performance took piace at the athletic grounds at Herne Hill.

The prospects of the school are very flattering. The faculty will remain about the same as at present constituted. The report of the resignation of the Principal, Dr. Noss, was totally unauthorized. He will remain at the head of the institution he has so ably managed during the past nine years. With the increased facilities which are contemplated the South Western State Normal School will easily hold its place as one of the most popular training schools in the land.

All quarantine against the infected district will be raised next week.

COUNTERPEITER BERT CAPTURED.

He Had Several Bogus Bills on Him When

Arrested by a Detective. NEW WILMINGTON, PA., June 30 .- [Sp. -A man known as "Counterfeiter Bert' Buzzard, or Bert Hinkston, was arrested Buzzard, or Bert Hinkston, was arrested this morning by Detective C. C. Kerr, of Butler county, who says that he has been shadowing him for three weeks. He followed him from Lancaster county until last evening he called at his stopping place, three miles from here, on the Wilmington and Sharon road.

The detective obtained counterfelt money in change for a $30 bill, and afterward searched the man while he siept and found several bills in his pocket. Bert, in company with another man, has lived in an old shanty for several months, and his actions were so suspicious that his neighbors mistrusted them. He will be taken to Pittsburg to-morrow.

OIL FLOWED TOO FAST.

well had just been drilled in when, without any warning, the oil spurted up over the top of the derrick, driving the drillers out of the rig.

Running to the boiler they attempted to extinguish the fire under it before the flames could communicate to the oil, but their efforts were unavailing, and almost immediately they were surrounded by fire and all of them frightfully burned. E. J. Bennest, the head driller, will probably lose the sight of his eyes; while it is feared that another of the victims named Coulton inhaled the flames and will die. All three of the men are in a pitiful condition.

MESSRS. HIGHER and Jackson and Captain John Barrett, of the Inter-State Transportation Com-pany, Mississippi, were here to attend the sa e of the Tennessee River Navigation Company's fleet yesterday, but were not heavy bidders. COMPLAINTS continue to be made by rivermen of the bad state of the Monongahela and the difficulty in getting around many obstructions in the river. No one or no firm seems willing, however, to make any move whereby the river's condition may be changed, preferring to make themselves believe that help will be afforded by the Government. In the United States Marshal's office yesterday afternoon 12 of the model barges owned by the Tennessee Biver Navigation Company were sold at public sale on mortgages. They were sold by James H. Park, a trustee under the mortgage, and bought in by hinself, he being the only bidder. He paid $400 each for hine of the barges, $300 each for two and $500 for one.
